

Christian Feminism in Hoosier Land?

(Yes, in Hoosier Land!)

Are you a Christian? Are you a feminist?

Ever think you must be the only one on the planet? At least the only one in Indiana?

You aren't alone.

The members of the Indiana Chapter of EEWC (Evangelical and Ecumenical Women's Caucus) stand with you and invite you to meet us and learn more about EEWC.

We Invite You To Lunch, Laughter, and Learning.

We are non-denominational. We are feminist. We are Christian.

We are part of EEWC which welcomes members of any gender, race, age, color, creed, ethnicity, economic class, sexual orientation, political party, parental status, religious affiliation, or disability.

- We offer a community of safety for all who have experienced abuse, marginalization or exclusion by Christian churches.
- We affirm that the Bible supports the equality of the sexes.
- We advocate ordination and full expression of women's leadership and spiritual gifts.
- We want to tell you about who we are and share lunch with you (yes, a free lunch!). We encourage you to join us and to join each other in fellowship and mutual support.

Where: North United Methodist Church (In the Parlor)
3808 N. Meridian St. (38th St. & Meridian), Indianapolis
(Free parking available on site.)

When: Saturday, January 14, 2006 Noon to 2 PM

What:

1. Lunch with interesting feminist Christians. (No cost.)
2. Overview of Christian feminist groups today.
3. Discussion of how EEWC can educate and support you as a Christian feminist, and how it has helped us.

RSVP by Wednesday, 1-11-06 to:
Elizabeth Bowman (317-580-4011) or via email to liz@eewcindiana.org

Check out our web site: www.eewcindiana.org